UNABLE TO AGREE.

Jury in the Louis Glass Bribery Case Is Discharged.

San Francisco, July 29.—The jury in the case of Louis Glass, vice president and general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, accused of having bribed Charles A. Buxton, a member of the board of city supervisors, through the agency of Theodore A. Halsey, to withhold a franchise from a rival corporation, was unable to agree on a verdict and was discharged after being out forty-eight hours.

The jury stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal. This was the result on the first ballot and subsequent ballots showed no change.

The prosecution announced that it would proceed with other indictments against Glass on a similar charge.

G. B. Burhans, of Castle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." ## HAYWOOD IS INNOCENT Found Not Guilty of Conspiring to Kill Steunenberg.

JURY OUT SEVERAL HOURS

Appeared to Be Deadlocked at Ten to Two for Acquittal—Orchard Says He Did All He Could to Convict Haywood.

Boise, Ida., July 29.—Into the bright sunlight of a beautiful Sabbath morning, in the stillness of a city drowsy with the lazy slumbers of a summer Sunday, William D. Haywood, defendant in one of the most noted trials involving conspiracy and murder that the country has ever known, walked a free man, acquitted of the murder of Former Governor Frank Steunenberg.

The probability of a verdict of acquittal in the case of the secretary-treasurer and acknowledged leader of the Western Federation of Miners had been freely predicted since Saturday, when Judge Fremont Wood read his charge, which was regarded as strongly favoring the defense in its interpretation of the law of conspiracy, circumstantial evidence and the corroboration of an accomplice who confesses.

It was also freely predicted that in the event of Haywood's acquittal the state would abandon the prosecution of his associates, Charles H. Moyer, the president of the federation, and George A. Pettibone of Denver. Statements from counsel and from Governor Gooding dispel this view of the situation. Governor Gooding said:

"The verdict is a great surprise to me and I believe it is to all citizens of Idaho who have heard or read the evidence in the case. I have done my duty. I have no regret as to any action I have taken and my conscience is clear. As long as God gives me strength I shall continue my efforts for government by law and for organized society.

"The state will continue a vigorous prosecution of Moyer and Pettibone and Adams and of Simpkins when apprehended. There will be neither hesitation nor retreat."

Application to Be Made for Bail.

Application will be made to Judge Wood to admit Moyer and Pettibone to bail and it is said that in the case of Moyer, against whom the state is admitted to have the weakest case, a favorable consideration would be expected.

Not the least interesting of the comments made upon the verdict was that of Harry Orchard, the self-confessed murderer of Governor Steunenberg and the witness upon whom the state chiefly relied to prove its claim of a sinister conspiracy. When told at the state penitentiary that Haywood had been acquitted, Orchard said:

"Well, I have done my duty. I have told the truth. I could do no more. I am ready to take my punishment that may be meted out to me for my crime and the sooner it comes the better."

It was after being out for twenty-one hours that the jury, which at first had been divided eight to four and then seemed deadlocked at ten to two, finally came to an agreement. The weary, snow-bearded old bailiff who had kept an all night vigil before the door of the juryroom was startled into action by an imperative knock from within. Events moved rapidly enough after this, and when at last the principal actors in the trial had been gathered into the courtroom at a few moments before 8 o'clock, the white envelope handed by the foreman to the judge was torn open and the verdict read to the attorneys for the state and to the small group of heavy-eyed newspaper men and court officials who had been summoned from beds but lately sought or from offices where sleepless waiting had marked the night. Tears welled to the eyes of the man who during the eighty days of his trial had sat with stolid indifference written upon his every feature—at last the icy armor he had thrown about himself with the first day of jury selection had been pierced and whatever of pent-up feeling had been contained within was loosed.

Haywood's Attorneys Jubilant.

Haywood's attorneys were fairly lifted from their seats and Judge Wood made no effort to restrain them as they surrounded Haywood to shout aloud their congratulations.

James H. Hawley, leading counsel for the state, and O. N. VanFurn, the prosecuting attorney for the county in which former Governor Steunenberg was assassinated, sat gloomy and unspeaking in their places. Senator Borah, who made the closing plea for conviction, was not present. Of the prisoner's counsel those in the courtroom were Clarence Darrow of Chicago, E. F. Richardson of Denver and John F. Nugent of Boise. The absentees from the defendant's table included Edgar Wilson, the former law partner of Judge Wood, who presided at the trial.

No members of the prisoner's family, nor any of his friends among the Socialist writers and the so-called "labor jury" who have been attending the trial, was in the courtroom at the early hour the verdict was returned. The spectators' benches were empty, but in the doorway stood Governor Frank Gooding, who has taken an active part in pressing the prosecution of Haywood and his associates. There was no demonstration other than that made by the attorneys for the defense and the court proceedings were over, the prisoner had been discharged and the jury dismissed for the term in less than three minutes.

The news of the verdict was received reluctantly in Boise. Extra editions of the papers carried the tidings far and wide and during the day there was considerable discussion in clubs, cafes, hotel lobbies and upon the street corners. The surprise that had been so manifest in the courtroom was prevalent everywhere.

The long time the jury was out had conveyed the general impression that there could be no other outcome than a disagreement. The rumors that spread so rapidly and frequently throughout the night and which were as unreliable as such rumors always are, were generally to the effect that a majority of the jurors had voted for conviction. Some were even so radical as to say that the only difference in opinion existing in the jury was as to the degree of guilt.

The apprehension of disagreement spread even to members of the defendant's counsel and when to this feeling were added the rumors of an adverse decision, which continually beat about their ears during the night, there could be found none to doubt the genuineness of their joy as the verdict was read.

Attorneys Thank Jurors.

Clarence Darrow of Chicago, who had made a plea describing the case as a struggle of "class against class," who had defiantly told the jurors that they were hostile to his client and had had their minds poisoned by a corrupt and capitalistic press, had entered the courtroom with the mood of his speech still upon him, but as Haywood was freed and as the jury was passing out he vied with the other members of counsel and with the prisoner himself in thanking with every evidence of sincerity the twelve citizens of Idaho who had heard the evidence and rendered their opinion. Mr. Richardson, too, hastened to dictate a statement in which he declared that his client had been given an absolutely fair and impartial trial and that Idaho had reason to be proud of herself.

Haywood's first thought was of his aged mother, who Saturday had suffered a complete nervous breakdown after the jury had retired. Leaving the courtroom in company with Attorney Nugent he walked down to the jail portion of the building, shaking hands as he went with guards, employees and friends who had arrived on the scene. He bade farewell to Moyer, who when he heard the verdict, said:

"That's good," and never stopped, and to Pettibone, who Mr. Darrow described to the jury as a "sort of 'Happy Hooligan,' and who called 'give my regards to Broadway.'"

Then Haywood walked to Saint Luke's hospital and unannounced rushed into his mother's room. So great was the effect of the news upon the elderly lady that Sunday night she was up and about and happy.

Next Haywood went to the little cottage where his wife and daughters have been stopping. He had parted with Attorney Nugent at the hospital gate, and, left alone in Boise, got all but lost and had to inquire his way from passers-by. Once home he said:

Haywood Thanks People of Boise.

"I want to thank the people of Boise for their kindness to my wife, my mother, my family and my friends."

There has been widespread sympathy here for Mrs. Carruthers, the prisoner's mother. Senator Borah, for instance, when first apprised of the verdict, said:

"I feel glad for Haywood's mother." Inquiry among the jurors after their dismissal revealed some of the elements entering into their decision. Samuel D. Gilman, the last man to be won over to the defense, declared that a majority of the men seemed convinced that the general tone of the court's instructions indicated that the defendant should be freed. Finley McBean, who voted consistently for acquittal from the first, declared that the judge's instructions seemed to settle all doubt as to the course he should take.

Juror James Robertson, the good-natured Scotchman, at whose house in Boise Governor Steunenberg boarded for more than two years, said:

"I could not reconcile myself to voting any other way than with the defense from the very first, and I think that under the law and the evidence there was nothing else for us to do. The last fellow who held out against acquittal belongs to the same fraternal organization that I do. There was some talk of a compromise on a second degree verdict, but we would not stand for that—it either had to be acquittal—or I would have stayed there forever."

Juror Samuel F. Russell, the senior member of the panel, said:

"There was nothing against Haywood but suspicion and inference, and when we came to dove-tail the evidence in the juryroom somehow it did not fit."

May Have to Ship by Rail.

Cleveland, July 29.—The strike of miners in the iron mines and among the dockmen in the Lake Superior region if long continued will force shippers to use the railroads to transport ore to the furnaces in the Cleveland and Pittsburgh districts during the coming winter, when navigation is closed.

One Dead, Another Dying.

St. Louis, July 29.—The breaking of a cable plunged an elevator down five stories in the Ely & Walker Dry-goods company building, killing John Ward and so badly injuring Paul J. Grote that it is believed he will die.

BAD FIRE AT CONEY ISLAND

Property Valued at a Million Dollars Destroyed.

New York, July 29.—Coney Island, the playground of New York's millions, was visited by a disastrous fire early Sunday and seven blocks in the amusement zone were completely destroyed. Tillyou Steeple Chase park and nearly a score of small hotels were wiped out and for a time the flames threatened the destruction of Luna park and Dreamland, great homes of summer amusement, and to the scores of smaller places, which fringe the waters' edge for a mile. A lucky shift of the wind to seaward added the firemen and probably saved the whole picturesque area, but not until $1,000,000 damage had been done. Three persons were injured, one of them, Gottfried Messerli, a fireman, probably fatally.

Only the advance guard of the 300,000 people who flocked to Coney Island saw the fire, but the thrilling tales of the fearless rescue of San Dora, the armless and legless man, and of the flight of Francesco, the fire-eater, when the alarm was sounded were told and retold along noisy Surf avenue and in the less particular Bowery.

Fine Food for the Flames.

"The Island," as New Yorkers familiarly call it, was just turning in for its early morning nap—the only sleep it ever gets—and the last thin line of Saturday night merrymakers was swinging gaily up Surf avenue when George Frost, a watchman at Steeple Chase park, spied a wavering trail of smoke coming from the "Cave of the Winds," one of the many shows in the park. Scarcely had Frost bestirred himself to action when a flash of flame shot out of the mouth of the cave. Alarm after alarm was rung, bringing scores of engines and hose carts to fight the flames. The inflammable character of the many attractions made fine food for the flames and notwithstanding the many streams of water poured on them, the conflagration seemed to defy all efforts to check its course.

The destruction of Steeple Chase park was a spectacular sight. Tongues of flames leaped hither and thither, licking up the scenic railway, the Razzle Dazzle, the dancing pavilion and the horse racing railway. The little wooden horses, standing on steel tracks high in the air, looked like the flaming steeds of the Valkyries. The great bell tower flamed brilliantly, a bright beacon seen by incoming ships as they crept up the harbor in the early dawn.

VIGILANCE COMMITTEE.

May Be Organized to Deal With Sheep Thieves.

Belle Fourche, S. D., July 29.—Organization of a vigilance committee may be the outcome of the constant raids by thieves on the sheep camps near here. At a meeting of sheep owners representing 175,000 head an assessment of a quarter of a cent per head was levied to raise a fund to cope with the raiders and vigorous action was promised.

Attempt to Kill King Peter.

London, July 29.—The Vienna correspondent of a news agency here says that dispatches received from the frontier report an attempt against the life of King Peter of Serbia. The royal train was diverted at Palanka through the malicious alteration of the railway points. The guard hastily applied the brakes, but not before a slight collision with a number of wagons occurred. Nobody was seriously hurt.

PROMINENT MEN INVOLVED

Land Company's Methods Said to Be Fraudulent.

Denver, July 29.—The News prints a story to the effect that the federal grand jury will be asked to investigate the methods of a land company which, it is alleged, fraudulently secured a long time lease on coal lands in Routt county, this state, and subsequently by misrepresentation sold $40,000 worth of stock mostly in Hamilton, York, Seward, Clay, Fillmore and Saline counties, Nebraska.

According to the News much of the money paid by the Nebraskans for stock has since been returned to the purchasers by persons connected with the land company who, after discovering the alleged fraudulent character of the company—they themselves being innocent of the wrongdoing—made restitution because they felt that it was their connection with the concern that induced many to buy stock.

It is claimed by the News that an ex-president, a former secretary of agriculture, a leading railroad lawyer of Nebraska and a well known banker of that state are involved in the exposure, though innocent of any wrong. Two prominent politicians of Colorado, one formerly holding state office and several others are mixed up in the affair and are said to be responsible for the alleged fraudulent acts.

The Number of Handsome New Dresses and Jackets at Church Yesterday

Many Compliments Heard on the Pretty Clothes and Their Wearers

Many ladies, Misses and children in attendance at church and Sunday school yesterday were clad in entire new outfits and so fetching and becoming, as several young men remarked at the door of one of the prominent churches—"This looks like Easter Sunday"—"So many new dresses, and the ladies and children look so charming in their silks and lawns." The young men were right, there were a great many new suits and patterns bought last week at the now famous cut price sale of L. M. Koop's.

This grand money-saving sale, with its unmatched low prices, came just when the ladies fully appreciated a change of raiment and while many bought tailor made jackets, suits or skirts, many who have the knack of making their own clothes, took advantage of the extremely low prices on Dress Silks, Albatross, Summer Voiles, Panamas, Organdies, Swisses, Lawns and Percales and on Saturday alone the L. M. Koop Big Sale sold over one hundred dress patterns in these summer fabrics. Many hundreds of beautiful dress and skirt patterns are yet to be sold during this week and as the prices range from 75c to 5.98 for a complete dress pattern and trimmings there is no excuse why there should not be three times as many nice new dresses on parade next Sunday as was last. You are surely missing a treat in Shoes, Wrappers, Kimonas, Belts, Ribbons, Laces, Undermuslins and Fancy Goods, all of high class quality, if you fail to attend this gigantic L. M. Koop cut price sale all this week.

We will give away 1000 more free tickets for the carnival good for children up to twelve years of age. While in the store this week be sure and ask for children's free tickets, they are free to everybody. This sale at L. M. THE PARKER SHOWS

Good Entertainment of Varied Character Provided All Visitors Says
The Grand Forks Herald

The entertainment provided for fair visitors by the Parker Amusement company has been the subject of much favorable comment. The list of attractions furnished by this company comprises ten separate shows, housed under separate tents, the tents lining one side of the rain walk to the grand stand. These shows range in character all the way from the wonderful trained animals in the Barnes collection through the beautiful spectacle presented in the Tyrolean Alps to the extravagances and oddities of the Katzenjammer castle. Each of the shows is in a class by itself, and taken altogether they present a collection in every way pleasing and entertaining, and in every way worthy of patronage. One feature the shows possess in common—they are absolutely free from vulgarity. As a performance the animal show of course, takes the lead. The program of this performance is one of some length, and the numbers are all of high character. The animals are all well kept and splendidly trained, and their work is done in a manner which indicates the intelligence of the animals and the care and skill of the trainers. As a beautiful spectacle one will be most impressed by the Tyrolean Alps. Illustrations of this feature may be seen in many of the windows down town but they fail to do justice to the soft and elusive color effects, and these are heightened by the reproductions of models and mountain songs that come from sources invisible to the audience. These, with the daily free performances in front of the grand stand, will keep the people entertained in the intervals between sightseeing in the exhibit buildings and between races.—Grand Forks Herald.

MUST ARM DEPUTIES

Sheriff Orders Armed Men to Be Held in Readiness.

QUIET ON THE IRON RANGES

And No Reason for Sheriff Hoolihan's Order Is Apparent—Mayor of Duluth Believes the Strike Soon Will Be Settled.

Duluth, July 29.—A telephone message to the News-Tribune from Bovey, Minn., says that Sheriff Hoolihan of Itasca county, who is at Nashwauk, has sent a telegram to his deputy at Bovey telling the latter to get the deputies under arms and be prepared to move at a moment's notice.

A mass meeting of the representative citizens, those sympathizing with the United States Steel corporation interests, was held at Bovey with the result that about 150 men under arms are reported to be camped about the city hall prepared to entrain in ten minutes' time. There are about 100 men under arms at the Holman location, which will be picked up en route to Nashwauk. The mines at Nashwauk have not been closed at all. It is said to be the strongest camp of the Western Federation, as there is less sympathy among the workers there for the United States Steel interests than at any other place on the range. It is doubted here in Duluth that the situation is so serious as the instructions of Sheriff Hoolihan to his deputies would indicate, as he is said to be a very ardent man and may see danger before it really exists. However, it is said the fact that the federation is so strong there tends to give color to his fear of a demonstration.

Mayor Cullum said that it was likely that a settlement of the ore handlers' strike soon would be achieved. Unless the ore handlers' strike is settled it is the opinion of those familiar with the conditions on the range that it would be useless to try to open the mines, as there would be no way of disposing of the output.

The chief stumbling block in the way of the settlement of the ore handlers' strike on the docks here and at the Allouez docks at Superior and Two Harbors is the question of the recognition of the union. The men are said to be wholly satisfied with their pay—that is they will waive the demand for the increase asked. They are earning from $2.25 to $2.50 a day. They are men of families and many of them have been in the employ of the Duluth, Missabe and Northern railway for many years. The discontent is the result of union agitation. They have succeeded in winning the men over to a demand for union recognition, which the railway is loath to grant. In fact it is freely stated that the railway will not grant this recognition. Thus it would seem that Mayor Cullum's hopefulness is based on nothing unless he has a strong card to play. The mayor has intimated he may give out a statement and that is as far as he will go. In the meantime he is straining every nerve to get the trouble settled.

No word has come from the range towns as to the situation there, but it is said to be a sure thing everything is quiet. Sheriff Bates is still there. His chief deputy, H. L. Pierce, said that no word had been received from the sheriff. Mr. Pierce seems to think that there is not yet much of a strike out there.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The News reporter is badly broken up about the condition of the saloon pianos and wants them tuned. It has been truthfully said the world is full of trouble.

Engine No. 346 turned herself loose and pushed another engine through the round house wall.

Some sneak thief entered the yard of I. U. White on Norwood street Wednesday evening and stole bodily three or four rose bushes and carried them away. Mr. White says he will give the man that did the job $25 and promise not to prosecute him if he will come around and disclose his identity to him. Mrs. White always has a beautiful flower garden and these plants taken were some of the finest varieties that were growing in the yard.

Tuesday morning the driver of J. K. Pearce's delivery wagon came near killing the five-year-old son of Alf Brockway. A runaway team had just passed and the boy with a crowd of men was in the street looking at it, when this driver came tearing down the road, and the lad was struck and knocked down by the horse, but luckily escaped serious injury.

Joe Riggs, of St. Paul, formerly of this city, reports a brand new baby girl at his home.

Wm. Dreskell has purchased a piece of land on Gull lake of John Bishop and will erect a cottage there the coming summer. Mr. Bishop says that he has so many applications for sites that he has concluded to lay out the ground along the lake shore, making a boulevard in the rear which will be graded and fixed up in good shape. When the Brainerd and Northwestern is built Gull lake will be very convenient to the Brainerd people.

The Brainerd fire department celebrated the anniversary of its organization on the 26th, delegations from St. Cloud and Little Falls being present. There was a parade with addresses in the afternoon and a grand ball at the roller rink in the evening. Liberty Hose Co. No. 3, of East Brainerd, was presented with a beautiful banner, the handiwork of Mrs. Ed. Brehney, Mr. Brehney making the presentation speech. It was accepted on behalf of the company by Alderman Geo. Forsythe, of the Third ward.

S. B. Hitt has already sold from his farm near this city some 800 head of cabbages and 599 bushels of potatoes, and yet there are people in our midst that claim that white beans will not grow here.

FOURTEEN ARE KILLED

Explosion Wrecks a Tenement
in New York City.

FIRE ADDS TO THE HORROR

One Hundred Persons Imperilled by Flames and Fully Forty of Them
Are Injured—Cause of Explosion Unknown.

New York, July 29.—An explosion accompanied by fire shattered an East Side tenement and with the crumbling walls fourteen persons went down to death, while twice as many were probably fatally injured.

The wrecked building was at 222
Christie street, where a six-story tenement rose above the grocery store basement. An explosion as yet unaccounted for tore out the front of the building and the fire that followed caught twenty families, numbering about 100 persons, while most of them were sound asleep. Not until the ashes have cooled will it be possible to recover the bones of the dead.

Of the injured many jumped from the windows, others were caught by falling timbers, many half suffocated by smoke, were dragged from the hall-ways, while others received their injuries during the panic and mad fight for an exit.

The tenement was occupied chiefly by Italians. A passerby was attracted by the explosion, which apparently occurred on the basement floor. As he turned toward the building the whole front with its flimsy fire escapes fell into the street and from the sagging floors a score of half-naked persons dropped to the pavement. Many of these were badly hurt but they proved to be the more fortunate of the tenants, for in another moment the building was wrapped in flames and the cries of persons burning to death rent the air. In the wild panic that followed many received mortal injuries. The police and firemen who early reached the scene attempted to take the frightened tenants from the building, but the few who were able to walk jumped to the street. The few who attempted to escape by the stairways were driven back by the smoke. Some of these made their way to other exits, but others crawled into the hallways to be dragged out insensible. The dead and injured in large part are women and children. In the scramble for an exit and safety the stronger in most cases survived.

Fourteen bodies have been recovered from the tenement house fire.

WITH A FIRE IN HER HOLD

Steamer Hamilton Races Up the Bay to New York.

New York, July 29.—With a fire of unknown proportions burning in her hold, the Hamilton, one of the crack steamers of the Old Dominion line, from Norfolk and Newport News, raced up the bay while two fire boats ready for action kept abreast of her.
Lining the rail, the steamer's 250 passengers, ignorant of the true situation, shouted encouragement to the puffing tugs which appeared bent on overhauling the larger vessel.

It was just as the ship starboarded her wheel to swing round the Scotland lightship that fire was discovered in No. 2 hold. Promptly the hatches were battered down, heavily tarpaulins thrown over them to keep out the air, and a wireless message was sent to the company's officers here asking for assistance. Five minutes later the fire boats were rushing down to meet the steamer.

As soon as the passengers who knew nothing of the fire were ashore, the hatches were removed. The fire was found to be confined to one hold.
Into this hold steam had been forced from the moment the blaze developed.
The blaze, at first thought to have been controlled by steam pumped into the hold as the vessel sped for her dock, proved most stubborn and entailed a loss of about $15,000.

FATAL FIRE AT MEMPHIS

One Man Killed and Two Others Seriously Injured.

Memphis, Tenn., July 29.—In an early morning fire here originating on the eleventh floor of the Memphis Cold Storage company's building, which was in the course of erection, one fireman lost his life and two others were seriously injured. The fire was gotten under control, the loss ap-proximating $600,000.

The dead man is Joseph Hiskey, fireman, killed by falling from a ladder.

The injured are: Lieutenant John Curry, Company No. 1, injured by falling walls; Pipeman William M. Kelley, Engine Company No. 9, injured by falling walls.

The following buildings were destroyed:

The Oliver-Finnie Grocery company's building, seven stories high; Behr-Cole Grocery company, Memphis Paper company and the Memphis Cold Storage plant, all located on South Front street.

Chism Bros., wholesale groceries, the Green House, a small hotel, and an unoccupied building were damaged by fire and water.

are suffering from the effects of poisoned food.

TRAGEDY IN SICK ROOM.

Prodigal Son Returns and Shoots His Sisters and Brothers.

Versailles, July 29.—Henry Huntington, son of Douglas St. George Huntington, former attache of the American embassy in Paris, has been arrested here on the charge of shooting his two sisters and one of his brothers.
The condition of the sisters is serious, Elizabeth having received a bullet near the heart. She is thought to be dying.

The tragedy occurred at the dying bedside of the father. Henry had returned to ask his father's forgiveness, having been estranged from his parents for some time. Mr. Huntington, Sr., was suffering from pulmonary congestion and as it was believed that he was near death a telegram was dispatched to Henry to return. The latter hurried to the bedside, around which were grouped the weeping wife, the daughters, Edith and Elizabeth, and the sons, Alonzo and Douglas.
Henry asked forgiveness for the sorrow he had caused and had received his father's blessing when Douglas requested him to seek the pardon of his mother also. This Henry declined to do and thereupon Alonzo asked him to leave the room.

According to the police, Henry immediately drew a revolver and fired at Alonzo. He then wheeled and shot both his sisters and endeavored to make his escape. He was captured, however, by a guard who ran into the house to investigate the cause of the shooting.

The Huntingtons are well known in and about Paris, where Alonzo is a prominent artist.

Mr. Huntington, Sr., who is sixty years old, survived the shock of the tragic scene and is still alive.

Later it developed that Douglas Huntington also had been hit by flying bullets.

RUNS INTO FREIGHT TRAIN

Special Train Wrecked and Three Trainmen Killed.

Brockton, Mass., July 29.—A special train ran into the rear of a freight train standing under the Plain street bridge on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and plowed its way through the caboose and four freight cars, killing three trainmen and injuring four others, two seriously. The dead are:

John Hathaway, conductor of freight; Donald Fraser and Riley, fireman.

It is said that no flagman was sent to the rear of the freight to warn approaching trains.

WOMEN'S WOES

Brainerd Women are Finding Relief
at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with "aching pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. L. Peterson, wife of L. Peterson, janitor of the Columbian block, Brainerd, Minn., says: "I have given Doan's Kidney Pills a thorough trial and believe that this remedy is the most reliable preparation that exists for kidney trouble. I used to suffer from constant dull aching in the small of my back and loins and other symptoms which plainly indicated a dis-ordered condition of the kidneys. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store. After using a few doses I felt better and in a few days the pain and other symptoms of kidney trouble disappeared. I believe that Doan's Kidneys Pills have given me a new lease of life, and am so confident that this remedy will do the same in all cases of kidney trouble that I am advising every sufferer I meet to use it."
